WELCOME TO OUR HARVEST

If you are a visitor, please do introduce yourself to the chaplain or to one of our welcomers. Today all ages remain together for our 11am service. Everybody is welcome to stay for refreshments after the service. Toilets are downstairs.

Sunday 8 Oct, 16th Sunday after Trinity

8.30am Holy Communion

11am An All Age service with communion, followed by refreshments. All are welcome.

Celebrant/Preacher: The Chaplain and children

Hymns

164 - For the fruits
543 - Praise and thanksgiving
121 - Come, ye thankful people
155 - Fill your hearts

During Communion we will sing:

221 - God, whose farm is all creation
24 - All that I am
792 - You are the centre

Collect:

Eternal God,
you crown the year with your goodness
and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season:
grant that we may use them to your glory,
for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reading: Luke 12:16-30

16 Then he told them a parable: 'The land of a rich man produced abundantly. 17 And he thought to himself, "What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?" 18 Then he said, "I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. 19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry." 20 But God said to him, "You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?" 21 So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.'

22 He said to his disciples, 'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. 23 For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. 24 Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! 25 And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? 26 If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. 28 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you—you of little faith! 29 And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying. 30 For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them.

This week we pray for

- St Andrew's staff, particularly for God's blessing on our guards: Alexander, Volodya, Nikolai, Sergey and Valentine
- the work of Heavenly Bridge, and the many people who come into St Andrews because of the concerts. Pray that they will be meet with Jesus. Pray also for wisdom to know how best to use the building.
- the plans for the Archbishop of Canterbury's visit to Moscow to meet the Patriarch. That it will build trust between our two churches.
- those suffering because of the shootings in Las Vegas, and for those affected by similar atrocities. Pray that those who would intend to commit such acts of terror would be frustrated, and would meet with God.
- those in need known to us. (If there is someone who could be included on the notice sheet, please email chaplain@standrewsmoscow.org)
