639 – The peace of the earth

Collect:

Risen Christ, for whom no door is locked, no entrance barred:
open the doors of our hearts, that we may seek the good of others and walk the joyful road of sacrifice and peace,
to the praise of God the Father. Amen.

Acts 4.32-35 (Reader: Rachel Culbertson)

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. ³³With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. ³⁴There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. ³⁵They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Psalms 133

1 Behold how good and pleasant it is to dwell together in unity.

2 It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down upon the beard,

3 Even on Aaron's beard, running down upon the collar of his clothing.

4 It is like the dew of Hermon running down upon the hills of Zion.

5 For there the Lord has promised his blessing: even life for evermore.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

As it was in the beginning, is now and shall be forever. Amen

Reading: 1 John 1.1 - 2.2 (Reader: Margret)

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— ²this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us— ³we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. ⁴We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. ⁶If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; ⁷but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. ⁸If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; ²and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

A welcome following a baptism

There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism:

N and N, by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body.

We welcome you into the fellowship of faith;

we are children of the same heavenly Father; we welcome you.

This week

- Pray for our Orthodox brothers and sisters as they celebrate Easter today. Particularly pray for our neighbouring churches: for the Church of the Ascension and Fr Alex, and for the Church of the Glorious Resurrection and Fr Nikolai.
- Pray for Mark Willson following his baptism yesterday
- Give thanks for the concert yesterday and pray for financial provision for the Restoration project.
- Continue to pray for peace, and for the reestablishment of trust between Russia and Western governments. Pray for all who serve in the diplomatic services of their countries.
- pray for people known to us who are in need, especially for Lena Fedetova's husband, as he recovers after having a heart attack
